

Career Opportunity: Aboriginal Relationship Coordinator

The Morris Interactive mission is to “Build Better People and Build Better Organizations.” We accomplish this through customized professional development programs that are delivered by experts in their field of work- and we like to have fun while we work! Topics of expertise include Leadership Development, Customer Service, Sales, Communication, Team Building, Conflict Resolution, Strategic Planning, and Safety Training. We also support our clients with an online training library of over 160 self-paced courses in Professional Development, Safety and Computer Training. Clients can expect to benefit from our services by:

- Keeping employees and positioning them to succeed
- Helping organizations plan for succession
- Creating an outstanding culture of communication
- Decreasing Absenteeism and enhancing employee engagement and client satisfaction

Due to our growth in serving the First Nations Organizations and businesses, Government, Agriculture, Financial Services, Oil and Gas, Healthcare, Hospitality, and Distribution, we are seeking an Aboriginal Relationship Coordinator.

Expected results

Results of this project will include clearer process definition of relationship development with First Nation’s organizations
Increased sales and communication activity to identified target markets
Increased exposure of both live and online training products.
Enhanced skill development the individual
Idea contribution to the team

Success will be measured by:

Quarterly evaluation of the participant to evaluate employee engagedness
Target market sales increase
Qualified Marketing products analysis
New Online Training clients
Improved tracking of Online training marketing campaigns

Applicants background, mandate and expertise

You Possess:

- A degree or diploma from a recognized educational institution
- A background in business and or experience with customers in a professional environment
- Outstanding Communication Skills
- A great attitude and resilient personality
- A network of contacts and networking skills

You are:

- Willing to travel 1-3 days per month
- Willing to be mentored and trained
- Willing to act independently and form new relationships
- Eager to contribute to a team and flexible to take on diverse roles

If you are interested in learning more about the opportunity, please email a cover letter and resume re: the Aboriginal Relationship Coordinator to Morris Interactive.

Contact Info:

Mathew Cey

Morris Interactive

Building Better People. Building Better Organizations

100-120 Sonnenschein Place

Saskatoon SK S7M 1M4

Ph: 306-955-3006 F: 306-955-3013

Email: mathew@morrisinteractive.ca

www.morrisinteractive.ca